

Did you know? Staples® is proud to be a provider of business supplies for the State of Idaho. We know you have options, but are confident that you'll find Staples to be your go-to supplier. Our heritage makes it easy for business: value and quality you can trust.

We've done the legwork for you.

Instead of wading through pages and pages of "sponsored" products with no relevance to your search, Staples has curated and vetted the smartest selection for the State of Idaho by our team of product specialists.

We move at the speed of business.

Simply said, we're fast. And free - we make next day delivery available* for more than 98% of the country.

You have a team behind you.

You have a dedicated account team of experts to help you find solutions for your agency. Reach out to your team below for custom orders or pricing, or issues with account setup.
