BIO

Karen Butler

Name and Title:
Karen Butler – Data Coordinator/System Administrator

Educational background:
Electrical Engineering and Project management

Certifications Held:
Project Management

Brief description of your experience:
I have spent my career in infrastructure portfolio, project and vendor management. Managing and implementing IT and infrastructure projects as well as managing the project procurements and vendor relationships for projects. During my career I managed IT Infrastructure portfolios and provided data analysis for multiple portfolios across organizations. I spent part of my career in Identity and Access Management in system administration and data analysis.

Areas of expertise:
Project management, Technology Implementation, Data Analysis, Vendor Management, System Administration.

Fun fact:
I travel to Italy as often as I can, love gelato and speak Italian.